

Water Resource/Drainage Engineer | Draper, Ogden & St. George, UT and Boise, ID (5+ Years of Experience)

JOB DESCRIPTION

Bowen Collins & Associates is a civil and environmental engineering firm specializing in providing water and wastewater relating consulting services to clients in the intermountain west. As a water resources engineer, you will work with other engineers, environmental scientists, and engineering technicians to plan, design, and oversee construction on projects including components of water resources planning, water and wastewater treatment, water transmission, sewer collection, stormwater drainage, flood control, groundwater management, and/or environmental services.

JOB TYPE: Full-time

EDUCATION: Bachelor's or Master's degree in Civil or Environmental Engineering

SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS:

- 5+ years of experience
- Professional Engineer (PE)
- Strong understanding of water resources industry and technology trends, including all aspects of water resource systems from studies through construction
- Understanding of hydraulics and hydrology
- Ability to work on multiple projects simultaneously in a fast-paced environment, strong attention to detail, and strong written and oral communication skills
- Capable of working efficiently with clients, contractors, regulatory agencies, and internal staff
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office

PREFERRED SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS:

- Proficiency with a variety of hydraulic and hydrologic computer modeling programs
- Understanding of the Division of Drinking Water (DDW) rules and regulations and Division of Water Rights (DWRi) rules and regulations
- Experience with client marketing efforts and proposal development
- Previous leadership experience
- Proficiency with AutoCAD and/or Microstation preferred
- Proficiency with GIS software preferred

BENEFITS OFFERED:

- Paid time off and Holiday pay
- Paid parental leave
- Health and Dental insurance
- EAP program
- HSA/FSA
- Life insurance and disability insurance

- Generous 401k retirement plan
- Supportive company culture
- Opportunities for growth and future ownership

METHOD TO APPLY: Resume with cover letter to: Email jobs@bowencollins.com